The attorneys for the Order of the Iron Hall have issued a circular letter to the members, in which they say that the suggestions of the Supreme Court in the decision sustaining the receivership will require a new Supreme sitting, and new officers throughout; some provision for the preservation and proper application of the funds of the Order, and some plan for the payment of matured certificates. The Protestant denominations are very much exerci-ed over the possible effect of the Gear; law on the missionaries in China who may be the victims of the rage of the inhabitants. The Methodists have established a day of special prayer for the securing of just treatment to the Chinese in this country, and the Presbyterians have sent cablegrams and letters to the American missionaries notifying them that the Geary law has been declared constitutional. The floods in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania and in Eastern Ohio have caused heavy property losses and have done great damage to the railroads. In the districts about Pittsburg it is estimated the general loss to property will amount to $1,000,000, and the losses to railroads as much again. In the district about Buffalo the total loss is estimated et $1,000,000. Traffic at Buffalo and Cleveland interrupted by high water is being slowly resumed.
